

MEET OUR PROFESSIONAL PANELISTS

Nikki Hasselbarth
Venable LLP

Nikki Hasselbarth is an attorney at Venable LLP. As an associate in Venable's Tax and Wealth Planning Group, Nikki focuses her practice on estate and business succession planning for high net worth individuals, and on working with tax exempt organizations, such as public charities and private foundations, on a variety of tax and planning matters. Nikki serves on the Board of Trustees of the Baltimore Educational Scholarship Trust (B.E.S.T.) and on the Program Committee for Stocks in the Future. She is also an active member of the Tax Practice Management and Fiduciary Income Tax Committees of the American Bar Association's Section of Taxation. In 2016, The Daily Record honored Nikki with its "20 in their Twenties" award and in 2017 Nikki was selected as a John S. Nolan Fellow of the American Bar Association's Section of Taxation.

Nikki earned her J.D. from Duke University School of Law in 2014, and a B.A. in Comparative Ethnic Studies from Columbia University in 2008. Prior to law school, Nikki served as a Teach For America corps member in Houston, TX where she taught third and fourth grade for two years.

Robyne McCullough
WBAL TV

Robyne McCullough is an alumna of B.E.S.T. and Garrison Forest School. Robyne has a Bachelor of Arts in Journalism from the University of Maryland, College Park where she also minored in Spanish Language and Cultures. She also earned citations from the CIVICUS Living Learning Program as well as the Jimenez Porter Writers' House. Robyne held several internships during her time in college at local television stations in Washington, D.C. and Baltimore and spent her summers as a paid intern with Comcast Communications through the Emma Bowen Foundation for Minority Interest in Media. Upon graduation Robyne was a Fellow with the News21 program, worked as a producer at WBOC-TV in Salisbury, Md., and is currently a producer for 11 News Today at WBAL-TV in Baltimore. Robyne currently serves on the Board of Trustees for Garrison Forest School.

Josh Perry
Brown Advisory

Joshua R. Perry is a Fixed Income Research Analyst at Brown Advisory. He is a member of the Chartered Alternative Investment Analyst Association® and a Financial Risk Manager – Certified by the Global Association of Risk Professionals. Prior to his current role, he worked at Driehaus Capital Management in Chicago while finishing his M.B.A. at University of Chicago Booth School of Business. He also has experience in commodities with Constellation Energy (now Exelon), JP Morgan Chase, and Credit Suisse. A West Baltimore native, Joshua went to McDonogh School in Owings Mills as a B.E.S.T. student before majoring in Financial Engineering at Princeton. Joshua is currently attending law school at night at the University of Baltimore, and is involved with the community serving on the boards of Calvert School (and independent K-8) and the Walters Art Museum.

Shane Tanzymore
T. Rowe Price and Associates

With nearly 20 years as an IT professional within the financial and telecommunications industries, Shane Tanzymore has been a unique and vocal advocate for bettering people to produce better value for organizations. After completing a Top Gun training program offered by Chubb Institute in February 1998, he joined Sprint at a Northern Virginia office as a software engineer supporting the Department of Justice communications contract and Sprint's Global Messaging platform helping to remediate Y2K issues. In early 2001, he joined CitiGroup supporting their consumer finance business as the principal developer for their direct marketing and branch incentives programs. Years later, in 2007, he became the technical lead on an effort to complete their first cross platform, real-time DNx solution. In 2009, he began his stint managing teams that provided software solutions for internal groups such as Compliance, Legal, Marketing, HR, Internal Communications and field offices in US and Canada. During that tenure, he transformed his organization from multiple teams embedded in specific domains to a highly cross functional Agile team. In 2016 to join the Global Business Investment Solutions team at T. Rowe Price in 2016, providing Agile Coaching and Leadership Development to several development teams.

The son of Harriet Tanzymore (teacher at Harford Heights, deceased) and Eugene Tanzymore, Jr. (Baltimore City Police, retired) Shane is a native Baltimorean, raised near Coppin State College. He graduated from St Paul's School in 1991 as a B.E.S.T. student and received a degree in Economics from Bucknell University in 1995. Over the years, his passion for creativity has led him to technology and the arts. He has been an active member of the spoken word community in Baltimore, York, and Harrisburg, producing and performing in numerous shows and concerts during the last 15 years.